Background Information

Beccie has worked in all aspects of SEN including mainstream, additionally resourced provision and specialist settings. She has extensive experience as a SENCo, Inclusion Manager and Lead Local Authority Advisory Teacher. Beccie remains very 'hands on' in the classroom and is passionate about being at the chalk face to support teachers and children in order to practice what she preaches. She is the author of 'The Complete Dyslexia Toolkit' and co-author of 'Getting it Right for SEND'. Beccie is especially passionate about the early identification of specific learning difficulties and celebrating learning differences. She strives to support schools to improve quality first teaching to ensure that every pupil has the chance to shine!
